

Peanut Power QRP Sprint sponsored by the North GA QRP club – nogaqrp.org

Date: Sept. 29, 2013 Time: 2000z to 2200z – later in the day to catch west coast stations.

Object: Work as many Peanut Power numbers as possible on the 40, 20, and 15M bands. Peanut numbers may work anyone. Others -work only those with Peanut numbers.

Peanut Power Numbers: Get your number from w4qo@qrparci.org after August 1, 2013

Suggested Call -Either CQ QRP (or CQ NUT for those with a PP number)

Exchange Peanut Power Number Stations -RST, S/P/C, Peanut Number

Non Peanut Power Number Stations -RST, S/P/C, Output power

Mode – CW, SSB

Power – See categories

Scoring - Working a Peanut Station -7 points

Working a non-Peanut Station -3 point

NoGaNuT Pete..!

Total score equals the total QSO points times the number of S/P/Cs worked on all bands or modes ( the same stations may be worked on multiple bands/modes for QSO points and S/P/C credit).

There is no multiplier for different classes or power, simply different categories. Enter in the category that applies. The maximum power for any band/mode determines your category for the entire contest.

Categories

Goober – 1w (2 watts PEP SSB) output power or less – Portable – This is the prestige Peanut Power class!

Salted – 5w (10W PEP SSB) or less – Portable

Boiled – 1w (2w PEP SSB) or less – Home Station

Roasted – 5w (10W PEP SSB) or less – Home Station

Raw – Over 5w (10W PEP SSB) – Home or Portable

There is no theme nor hiking required. If you are at home on home antennas, you are a home station. If you are Portable (outside on a temporary antenna), you are portable, even on your own property. You may request a Peanut number for use in any category.

Focus – In order to promote a focus of activity, we recommend the following frequencies. Up from 7060, 14060, and 21060 for CW and 7285, 14285, and 21285 on SSB. The length of this sprint is only 2 hours and score may be maximized by working all 3 bands and both modes.

Entry – Send your score and a copy of your log via email by Oct. 15, 2013 to w4qo@qrparci.org Entries must include a description of equipment and location and the category of the entry.

Awards – Plaques will be awarded to at least every category winner. Certificates will be awarded to others as appropriate.

The North GA QRP club caters to QRPers in the Atlanta/North GA area with 150 members. We regularly get 30 people at our meetings the second Saturday of the month and have a website – nogaqrp.org NoGA is a no dues, no officers, no bylaws, no formality club – just FUN with QRP.
